of the Atlantic.

Further. In next Examiner I like address to you a letter entitled Persecutions of English & American.
I spoke to you about it while here, & heartily rejoice myself in the Examiner. Now, like a good man, pay attention to this & send me a good reply.

I did not receive your note - & therefore I may judge that the admirable article I am quoting from the New Englands was from. I presume I am right in that conjecture. It is not & has been <sup>long</sup> received here. I wish you would write for me often & fully. Always just heart and believe me, my dear Brother ever cordially yours James Carile all particulars; but my object is to request as a special favour, that you will send me a letter or from our Correspondent in America for the first week in January. What he wants is, a bird's eye view of American Affairs at the time at which you write - Not so Ecclesiastical as you would write to W. M. M. & get including Ecclesiastical Affairs.

I will write you fully on the Sabbath next, but at present I can do nothing more than to express an earnest hope that you will comply. The paper will be the Highlander - And if I mistake not will attract attention on both sides

75-

My Dear Brother, I write this in a Committee Meeting of the Anti-Slavery Church Society, & therefore you cannot expect any news from me.
All your agents shall be attended to about the Nov. & any thing else.

On point of great importance I must now be going before you. We are about to start in January a new Weekly Newspaper, of the first class, to be conducted by an Association of Literary Men - and to be under my superintendence & our understanding. I will send you a prospectus from which you will learn
